Gladstone at the Fair. In the life of Lord Granville appears this of Mr. Gladstone. He "came over with Mrs. Gladstone and Lord and Lady Sydney, whose guest he was at Deal, because you would not guess it in a thousand years because there was to be a fair that afternoon, and Mr. Gladstone wanted to try a merry-go-round.

Indeed we all went after luncheon, and it was only on assuming him that the opposition papers would make fun of it next morning that Mr. Gladstone renounced a 'sure' on the merry-go-round, and he did his best to console himself by strolling into every booth from the giant woman to the calf with eight legs. Every possible monstrosity was honored by the premier's visit, who seemed to enjoy himself more than the schoolboys to whom their dons showed the G. O. M."

Fishermen's Queer Ways. Fishermen have queer customs. A few years ago the fishermen of Preston, Lancashire, used actually to go fishing on Sunday. It seems incredible, but they did. A clergyman of the town used to preach against this Sabbath desecration and pray that they might catch no fish. And they did not. But they found out how to make his prayers of no avail. The fishermen used to make a little effigy of the person in rags and put this small "guy" up their chimneys. While his reverence was slowly smoked and consumed the fish bit-like anything—London Fishing Gazette.

Fault Finding. The constant nagging, querulousness, complaining, dissatisfaction and the inveterate habit of seeing and speaking about the disagreeable side of things are traits which will inhibit the finest nature and in the end ruin the spirit and character of those who are subject to unreasonable and contemptible caviling and complaint.

May Avoid It. "Whither, dear friend?" "To Africa."

ESSEX COUNTY ORPHANS' COURT.—In the matter of the estate of William Baab, deceased. Orders for the sale of the real estate of William Baab, deceased, having been exhibited under a true account of the personal estate and debts of said intestate whereby it appears that the personal estate of the said William Baab is insufficient to pay his debts and requesting the aid of the Court in the premises.

It is thereupon on this twenty-second day of January, 1906, ordered that all persons interested in the said real estate, hereditaments and real estate of the said William Baab, deceased, appear before this court at the court house in the city of Newark on the seventh day of April, 1906, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause why the same should not be sold as will be sufficient to pay his debts.

Witness, Jay Ten Eyck, esq., Judge of said court, this 22d day of January, 1906. G. E. RUSSELL, surrogate.

ESTATE OF JOSEPH W. RAY, DECEASED. Pursuant to the order of GEORGE E. RUSSELL, surrogate of the County of Essex, this day made, on the application of the undersigned administrators of said deceased, notice is hereby given to the creditors of said deceased to exhibit to the undersigned under oath or affirmation their claims and demands against the estate of said deceased, within nine months from this date, or they will be forever barred from presenting or recovering the same against the subscriber.

W. W. Keyler's Unusual Offer. Sell Dr. Howard's Specific at Half Price and Guarantee a Cure. "It isn't often that I have faith enough in the medicine put up by other people to be willing to offer to refund the money if it does not cure," said W. W. Keyler to a citizen man who dropped into his store, "but I am glad to sell Dr. Howard's specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia on that basis."

"The Dr. Howard Company, in order to get a quick introductory sale, authorizes me to sell their regular fifty cent bottles at half price, 25 cents, and, although I have sold a lot of it, and have guaranteed every package, not one has been brought back as unsatisfactory."

"One great advantage of this specific," he continued, "is its small dose and convenient form. There are sixty doses in a vial that can be carried in the vest pocket or purse, and every one has more medicinal power than a big pill or tablet or a tumbler of mineral water."

"I am still selling the specific at half price, although I cannot tell how long I shall be able to do so, and anyone who is subject to constipation, sick headache, dizziness, liver trouble, indigestion, or a general played-out condition, ought to take advantage of this chance. You can tell your readers that if they are not satisfied with the specific they can come right back to my store and I will cheerfully refund their money."—Advt.
